FROM THE DIRECTOR

Welcome to Meldrum House!

It is a real privilege and honour for Sprowston Parish Players to have the opportunity to present the UK stage premiere of You Rang, My Lord?. To be among the very first to bring this much-loved BBC comedy, created by Jimmy Perry and David Croft, to life on a British stage is something truly special, and we are delighted to share it with you.

Step back to the 1920s, where life above and below stairs is never quite as straightforward as it seems. As old friendships are renewed, new faces arrive at Meldrum House, and long-hidden secrets begin to emerge, the household is thrown into a series of wonderfully funny misunderstandings and unexpected twists.

Faithfully adapted from the opening episodes of the original television series by Roy Gould and Penny Croft, this production celebrates everything that has made You Rang, My Lord? such a treasured British classic—its memorable characters, gentle humour, and unmistakable charm.

Bringing Meldrum House to the stage has been a rewarding journey for our cast, crew and production team. Countless hours of rehearsals, set building, costume preparation and backstage work have all gone into recreating the world of this iconic series, and I couldn't be prouder of everyone's dedication and enthusiasm.

Whether you're a lifelong admirer of the television series or discovering these wonderful characters for the first time, we hope you'll enjoy spending an evening with us as the story unfolds.

Thank you for supporting local theatre and for joining us for this very special occasion. We hope you enjoy your visit to Meldrum House.
